says, hey, here's what your listening habits were for the past year.

Oh, so it is like an individual, it's sort of a personalized, yearly recounting of what you listen to? I'm not on Spotify, but they do send me, like I'll get an email from them saying, um, I remember one addressed to The Down-Fi, it was hilarious: "Your place on Spotify has increased 723 percent in the last- over the last month." And I'm going "how can you increase by 700-some percent if, unless you started at zero?"
